RULES OF CONDUCT FOR THE ST. LAWRENCE II

The rules aboard ship are important for the safety of the ship and it's crew. Rules are also useful when a group of people are living and working together in close quarters.

- All orders and instructions given by the Captain, Officers, or Petty Officers are to be obeyed immediately and without question. To disobey, ignore, reject, or argue with an order given is not only an act of insubordination, but is also an act that can be potentially very dangerous in conditions at sea.
- There will be no consumption of alcohol or drugs while engaged in any Brigantine activity ashore or afloat. There will be NO SMOKING while engaged in any Brigantine activity ashore or afloat.
- Sexual harassment, physical or verbal abuse shown to fellow crewmembers will not be tolerated.
- Sexual activity will not be permitted during your Tall Ship Adventure, on the ship, during shore leave or on the bus.

The consequence of breaking any of the above rules of conduct may result in removal from the ship and being returned home at your expense.

This form must be signed in order to board the ship.

I have read, understood, and agree to abide by the rules of conduct. I am aware of the consequence if there are any violations.
